9.1 PROPOSAL RESPONSIVENESS

All proposals will be reviewed to determine responsiveness. PVSC may reject non-responsive proposals without evaluation, but may waive minor non-compliance.

9.2 EVALUATION OF PROPOSALS

An evaluation committee, with a minimum of three members, will evaluate responsive proposals using the following evaluation criteria categories, separate or combined in some manner, and not necessarily listed in order of significance:

PVSC further reserves the right to make such investigations as it deems necessary as to the qualifications of any and all firms submitting proposals in response to this RFQ. In the event that all proposals are rejected or if PVSC, at any time, deems the number of qualified firms receiving designations as the result of this RFQ to be insufficient to meet the potential needs of PVSC, PVSC reserves the right to re-solicit proposals.

10.0 SPECIAL LEGAL COUNSEL DESIGNATIONS AND RETAINER AGREEMENTS

10.1 SPECIAL LEGAL COUNSEL DESIGNATION

A firm selected pursuant to this RFQ for designation as Special Legal Counsel will be the subject of a Special Legal Counsel designation. A firm may not represent PVSC unless it is given a Special Legal Counsel designation. A Special Legal Counsel designation, however, is not a retention for a specific matter and does not entitle a firm to be retained for any matter. The terms and conditions set forth in this RFQ shall be the terms and conditions of the Special Legal Counsel designation.

10.2 RETENTION LETTER

A firm may not represent PVSC unless it also executes a retention letter for a specific matter or class of matters. A firm selected as Special Legal Counsel and placed on a list may, from time to time, be contacted by PVSC for retention on a specific matter. At that time, if the firm agrees to the retention, the firm may be required to submit updated certifications, as required by Attachment F, and will receive a retention letter to countersign. The terms and conditions set forth in this RFQ shall be included in the additional terms and conditions in the Retainer Letter.
